BESIDE CHAMPLAIN.

AFTER A YEAR OF ABSENCE.

I love the music of the waves,
On Champlain's rock-bound shore,
Their gentle dash in tiny caves,
Or the sullen breakers roar.
I love to drift the days away
'Neath Heaven so blue and wide,
Where Almighty power holds perfect sway.

Upon its heaving tide,
Each serried rock is dear to me,
Imposing, wondrous, grand,
Where wind-tossed waves dash wildly free,
Uncurbed by mortal hand.
Each sheltered nook—each time-aged tree—
I've marked them o'er and o'er—
Each year, like old friends, welcome me,
To Champlain's well-loved shore.
Through the nodding pines the breezes sigh,
Beside the shining bay.
And golden-hued the moments fly
And drift with the tide away.
Oh, sun-kissed waters fair memory brings—
Her choicest treasures rare,
And o'er thy gushing side, she flings
Among them one the most fair.
Oh, make my lowly bed in last,
Beside fair Champlain's shore,
Where the cedar's cool shadows cast,
And the waves dash evermore.
Then come each year, dear friends I love,
Across the sun-kissed bay,
The smiling Heaven so near above,
And knead o'er me and pray.

Mrs. NELLIE FISHER.

Letter from Guiteau.

Guiteau thus writes to the Star: "I tell the American people and its officials, from the Executive down to the court in bane, who are reviewing my case, that I tell the truth and lie not, when I say I am God's man in the matter of President Garfield's removal, and that if hair of my head is harmed, the Almighty will make them that do it pay well for it. If I was outside, I would lecture under the auspices of some bureaus on religious subjects. One of my subjects would be 'Paul, the Apostle,' and kindred topics. If my time has come to leave this world, I am willing, but I want the officials that murder me on the gallows to understand the issue. If they murder me they will incur the wrath of Almighty God, and it will not be a long time before he lets up on them and this nation. The devils that crucified the despised Galilean thought they were doing God's service, but that did not release them from liability. They and their nation incurred the wrath of the Almighty by that act, and he got even with them at the destruction of Jerusalem, and he will get even with this nation and its officials, if I am murdered on the gallows. I want unconditional pardon or nothing, and I want the Executive so to understand it."

I have set forth my views fully on this in my book, "The truth and the Removal." If the honorable jurists, representing the Court in bane, decide this case according to law there is only one decision they can make, and that is, that they have no jurisdiction. If they decide contrary to law, the matter will rest with President Arthur, and they will have incurred the wrath of Almighty God.

From Washington.

The announcement that the decision of the Court in bane upon the exceptions in the Guiteau case would be read Monday morning attracted an unusual gathering at the Circuit Court room. At 10:15 the Judges filed into the court and took their places at the bench. Soon after the formal opening of the court Justice James said, "I am instructed by the court to announce its decision in the case of the United States against Charles J. Guiteau upon the exceptions to the judgment of the Criminal Court." He then read from manuscript the decision of the court. At its conclusion Judge James said that although the court was unanimous in the views set forth there were some questions which it was desirable to discuss more fully than could well be done in the opinion he had just read, and Justice Hagner had consented to discuss those questions in a separate opinion. Justice Hagner then read his opinion, and Chief Justice Carter made the following announcement: "The opinions which have here been uttered are the unanimous opinions of the court; that a new trial is denied, and the judgment of the trial below is affirmed in this case." The court then adjourned.

A combination of Iron, Peruvian Bark, and Phosphorus in a paintable form. The only preparation of iron that will not blacken the teeth, characteristic of other iron preparations.

GENTLEMEN: I have used DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC in my practice, and in an experience of twenty-five years in medicine, have never found anything to give the results that DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC does. In many cases of Nervous Debility, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, and an impoverished condition of the blood, this tonic remedy, as in my hands, made some wonderful cures. Cases that have failed under the most eminent physicians, have yielded to this great and incomparable tonic. I prescribe it in preference to any other preparation hitherto. In fact, such a compound is a necessity in my practice.
